ASSURANCE STATEMENTS

- 1) Professionally acceptable standards governing the care, treatment, and use of animals, including appropriate use of anesthetic, analgesic, and tranquilizing drugs, prior to, during, and following actual research, teaching, testing, surgery, or experimentation were followed by this research facility.
- 2) Each principal investigator has considered alternatives to painful procedures.
- 3) This facility is adhering to the standards and regulations under the Act, and it has required that exceptions to the standards and regulations be specified and explained by the principal investigator and approved by the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). A summary of all the exceptions is attached to this annual report. In addition to identifying the IACUC-approved exceptions, this summary includes a brief explanation of the exceptions, as well as the species and number of animals affected.
- 4) The attending veterinarian for this research facility has appropriate authority to ensure the provision of adequate veterinary care and to oversee the adequacy of other aspects of animal care and use.

Dear Dr. Gibbens:

RE: USDA Annual Report- The University of Texas at Austin- Registration # 74-R-0029/ 1453

The University of Texas at Austin USDA Annual Report is attached with signature certification for the annual report electronically submitted on December 1, 2006. In addition to the information provided in the electronic submission, there are two items we would like to include:

- 1) The contact information needs to be changed to the following address for all future correspondence:

The University of Texas at Austin
P.O. Box 7996
Austin, TX 78713

- 2) The University of Texas at Austin's IACUC was granted exception concerning fluid restriction in non-human primates. Two investigators were granted IACUC approval to utilize carefully monitored water control as a motivational tool. During this reporting period, nine (9) non-human primates have been used under these exceptions.

If you have any questions or require further documentation, please do not hesitate to contact me at (512) 471-2877.

Sincerely,

JMS:sp

Attachment to 2006 Annual Report to USDA

A total of 12 calves and 53 sheep on 8 separate IACUC-approved protocols were confined to a stanchion for the minimum period of time necessary to accomplish the objectives of the approved research protocols, sometimes exceeding 24 hours, in order to provide proper care during the post-operative period, and to prevent harm to the animal during this period. The IACUC reviewed and approved the explanation and justification for “extended restraint” in each of these protocols.

Exception Summary

Oct. 1, 2005 – Sept. 30, 2006

The IACUC approved an exception to house rabbits in cages that provided less than the required square footage for a period of up to 4 days. The space restriction was required to restrict the animal's movement following application of an intravenous catheter for continuous infusion, indwelling urinary catheter, and urine collection system. This exception was reviewed and approved by the IACUC with the requirement that on-site monitoring was provided for the animals for at least 18 hours per day by qualified personnel. Fourteen rabbits were covered under this exception during the reporting period.

IACUC APPROVED EXCEPTION

Rabbits - 49 offspring during this reporting period

IACUC has approved the use of a leaf of hay rather than a nest box for rabbit offspring less than one month of age. The sides of the cage and the flooring protect offspring from getting entrapped or falling through the cage sides or floor. By eliminating a hard sided nest box, there are fewer incidents of offspring getting trapped and squeezed between the cage walls and the next box. The hay provides a safe haven for the offspring in breeding cages of this design.

This report is required by law (7 USC 2143). Failure to report according to the regulations can result in an order to cease and desist and to be subject to penalties as provided for in Section 2150.
